Highlights

• Among the Fales Library’s many treasures are a renowned collection of the English novel from the mid-18th century to the present; a rich collection of cookbooks and food-related material dating from the 1790s; and the Downtown Collection, an extraordinary, multimedia archive documenting the avant-garde New York art world since 1975.

• The Tamiment Library is the country’s leading repository of research materials in the history of left politics and labor. A new fellowship program is bringing scholars to NYU to use Tamiment’s unparalleled collections of archives, documents, manuscripts, books, photographs, films and posters to explore the history of the Cold War and its wide-ranging impact on American institutions, politics and civil liberties.

• The Bobst Library holds one of the largest collections of United Nations documents located outside the U.N. itself.

• The Avery Fisher Center for Music and Media features 134 listening and viewing stations and a multimedia library containing more than 75,000 CDs, LPs, videotapes, laser discs, and DVDs.

• Our library faculty includes over two dozen subject specialists who assist students, faculty, and researchers in fields ranging from Physical Sciences to East Asian studies.

• The Bobst Library houses over 3.4 million volumes, 41,000 serial titles, more than 5.2 million microforms, and thousands of archival documents, including manuscripts, photographs, videos, and other materials.

“For me, the partial payment that I have made on my debt to mankind by my gift to the library will live on long after the building crumbles, in the minds of those who will learn from the books it will contain and who will pass their learning on to future generations.”
